

What shape is the per-camera error, really?

1844 real detections, balanced set-pose grid, current floor-plane IPM, clear views only. Scored against commanded ground truth.

Which shape actually fits the real error? fit on one half of the floor, scored on the other

The radial error is strongest CLOSE IN and fades with range so it is not a drifted mounting angle, and not a constant either

